Bandar, the Greedy Monkey

A monkey called Bandar lived in the woods near a small town. One day, Bandar was bored and decided to go into the town. Bandar went to a bakery and saw thirty beautiful cookies. He stole a cookie and ate it. It was good! He ate more and more cookies!

The baker saw Bandar and chased him. "You greedy little monkey!" he cried. "Now there are only fifteen cookies!"

Bandar ran up a tree and hid in the leaves. When he looked down, he saw sixty small carrots in a garden. When the gardener wasn't looking, Bandar ran down the tree, dug up a carrot, and ate it. It was good! He ate more and more carrots!

The gardener saw Bandar and chased him. "You greedy little monkey! Now there are only forty-four carrots!"

Bandar went to a restaurant and saw forty-two sausages. He stole a sausage and ate it. It was good! He ate more and more sausages!

The cook saw Bandar and chased him. "You greedy little monkey! Now there are only thirty sausages!"

Bandar stole food all over the town. Everyone was angry. They tried to catch Bandar, but he was too fast. Then the candy maker had an idea.

The next day, Bandar went to the candy store. He saw two big jars of candy in every color, and it all looked good! Bandar put his hands in the jars and grabbed twenty pieces of candy. But he couldn't get the candy out of the jars.

The candy maker ran in.
"You greedy little monkey! Let go of the candy and you can run away!"

Did Bandar let go of the candy?
No, he didn't, and the candy maker caught him. He took him back to the woods and told him never to come to town again.
